LOCAL NEWS

MORRISVILLE

Remember those taxes.
Lynn Page has been confined to the house for several days from lumbago.

Mrs. Lynn Page, who suffered a severe cut on the hand last week, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds of Danville were guests Sunday of the latter's sister, Mrs. Anna Wallace.

Miss Edith Best of St. Armand, P. Q., was a guest from Wednesday until Monday of Mrs. Sherman Miller.

Mrs. H. Allen left today for Waterville, Me., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Alton Little.

Miss Maude Moulton returned Monday evening from a three months' visit with friends in New Hampshire and Massachusetts.

Mrs. Casilda Davis returned from Wells River Saturday, where she visited Mrs. Cora Whipple. Mrs. Whipple accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Mead and Mrs. Addie F. Goodrich spent Sunday at Willoughby Lake, making the trip in the Goodrich automobile.

Ellis Rollins, one of the head men of the Standard Oil Co. in Vermont, from Barre, visited his sister, Mrs. William Demeritt, and niece, Mrs. Chas. Miller, Sunday, coming by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Holmes of St. Albans came last Saturday for a visit at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Thomas. Mrs. Holmes returned Tuesday, but Mr. Holmes, who is in poor health, will remain for a longer visit.

E. E. Harris will leave Thursday for a trip to Sierre Madre, California, where he will spend two months with Mrs. Harris and their daughter, Miss Brella. Miss Harris has been there for the past year and Mrs. Harris joined her several months ago.

Mrs. C. D. Howe and three children left this morning for Salem, N. Y., where they will visit her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Durfee. Mr. Howe will join them there for a few days following the State Teachers' meeting, which begins in Rutland next Wednesday.

Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor of the Congregational church, is taking a two weeks' vacation. He left last night for New Haven, Conn., where he will attend the National Council of Congregational churches. He will go from there to Ottawa, Ont., and will be accompanied home by Mrs. Baker and children, who have been visiting her parents.

The music committee of the Woman's Club will hold their meeting, which comes on Monday evening, Nov. 1, at Academy hall, when a program of interest to music lovers will be given. The meeting will not be confined to members but a general invitation is extended to any who wish to attend. There is no admission and the committee would appreciate a generous response to this invitation.

Congregational Parish Supper

The annual Parish Supper of the First Congregational Church of Morrisville, which was held in the church parlor last evening, was attended by fully two hundred and twenty-five people and was one of the most enthusiastic annual gatherings ever held by this church. A reception was held in the church auditorium preceding the supper hour, when the pastor and others extended a hearty welcome to all. It was a happy family gathering, there being representatives from all branches of the church life and the speeches following the supper hour, which were made by representatives of each department of church work, were optimistic and told of much good work accomplished during the past year and plans for work in the coming months.

The banquet, which was served by the United Workers, was well prepared and delightfully served, several young men of the church society acting as waiters.

Rev. W. E. Baker acted as toastmaster and the speakers were as follows:—

For the United Workers, Mrs. Fannie Bickford; Missionary Society and Ladies' Auxiliary, Mrs. Geo. W. Clark; the Sunday School, especially the Brotherhood Class, Thos. C. Cheney; Unity Class, Miss Nan Wombell, who emphasized the need of a Y. M. C. A. and an open church during the week in an impressive manner; Christian Endeavor, Miss Florence Stewart; Brotherhood, C. D. Howe, who suggested a minister's cabinet to assist the pastor.

DR. HARDY'S GENEROUS OFFER

Rev. Dr. Hardy was called upon to speak for the older members of the church. He prefaced his remarks by asking the pastor to read a part of the 87th Psalm, which was read at the dedication of the church. Dr. Hardy made an eloquent plea for a strengthened church consciousness and urged the need of more men and bigger men to do the work than was required fifty years ago. He referred to the needs of a "community parish house", which had been mentioned by other speakers, and in closing stated that he would give $1,000 for such a purpose. The need of a place of this kind in Morrisville is keenly felt by all who have the interest of the young people at heart, and it is hoped that the offer by Mr. Hardy will start a definite action in this direction.

A pleasant feature of the program was remarks by Rev. Mr. Anthony of St. Albans, who arrived in town last evening to accompany Mr. Baker to the Congregational Convention in New Haven. In his closing remarks, Rev. Mr. Baker mentioned six things which are necessary in church work, the initial letters of which spell "My Task." They were—Money, Youth, Time, Ardor, Support and Kindliness.

The White Chapel Quartet, composed of Messrs. Robinson, Merrill, Reynolds and Baker, with Miss Shephardson as pianist, rendered several selections very acceptably.

The Library will be closed this evening and until Saturday, owing to the meeting of the Vermont Library Association at Burlington Oct. 20-22.

Death of Ed Dake

The remains of Ed Dake, nearly a life-long resident of Morrisville, were brought here last Friday night from the State hospital at Waterbury, where he died last Thursday night, having been an inmate there for five years. The interment was in Green Mt. cemetery on Morris-town Plains Saturday at 10 a. m., where the deceased had erected a stone for himself years ago. There was a short service at the grave, Rev. R. D. Cranmer officiating.

The deceased was born in Hyde Park in 1838, and came to Morrisville when ten years of age, making his home in the families of the late E. H. and C. L. Shaw on the Shaw farm until 15 years ago, when he became a town charge. Ed, with his tambourine, was a frequent visitor on the streets of Morrisville in earlier days.

Principals Interested in Sports

It is expected that the Principals of the Spaulding High school of Barre, Stowe High school, Montpelier High school, Harwick Academy, St. Johnsbury Academy and Peoples Academy will meet in Morrisville Friday of this week to perfect arrangements for a basketball league. A schedule will be arranged by these teams for the present school year and a trophy of some kind will be awarded the winner.

The local school will have some good material and should develop a strong team this year. Practice will soon begin.

Fruit Growers Next

The twenty first annual meeting or exhibition of the Vermont State Horticultural Society will be held in Morrisville the week preceding Thanksgiving. The dates are Nov. 24, 25 and 26. It will be held in combination and connection with the annual school exhibit of Morrisville.

Dennis W. Lawson was a guest from Friday until Monday at his home in Northfield.

George Thresher of Ferrisburg was a guest a short time last week of his sister, Mrs. Newell H. Ellsworth, on lower Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ellsworth were guests of James Stratton in Hardwick last Saturday, going by auto with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward.

The condition of John Best of the west part of town, who has been in failing health for some time, has not been as well for the past few days.

Mrs. Mary Gaskill has returned to her home in Nashua, N. H., after visiting her sister, Mrs. George Lavaraway, and family on Maple street.

W. M. Johnson and Miss Buswell were in Northfield Sunday, accompanying home Mr. Johnson's nephew, Howard Johnson, who has been visiting here.

Martin Elmore Jerome of Calais, a grandson of the late Judson T. Hill, formerly of Elmore, and a graduate of Montpelier Seminary in the class of 1915, has entered the law office of J. H. Senter, in Montpelier as a student of law.

The rummage sale for the benefit of the Morrisville Cemetery Association is now under full headway in the Brown Block, next door below Earle's store. Donations of all sorts of articles will be gratefully received. The sale will be open the whole of this week. Great bargains in books, clothing, &c., are still to be found at the sales room.

On Wednesday evening of this week at 8 o'clock in the vestry of the M. E. church will be held the opening session of the Community S. S. Teacher Training course. Rev. C. A. Boyd will be present as instructor. An enrollment fee of fifty cents is charged to pay traveling expenses of Mr. Boyd. All teachers and prospective teachers are invited to join.

R. M. Donaldson of West Union, Iowa, was a guest several days the past week of his nephew, D. W. Donaldson. Mr. Donaldson is a native of Franklin county and this is his first visit to Vermont in over 30 years. He was very favorably impressed with Morrisville, where he enjoyed fully the grand mountain scenery in Riley's favorite month, "Old October."

Earl Welch of Hardwick is surveying on the lower road at Hyde Park this week. He is trying to identify the road, which has caused so much controversy, with the old County road laid out by the Supreme Court in 1840. If the fact is established that this is the same road, it may have a bearing on the question of closing the road, recently brought up again by a petition to the selectmen of Hyde Park.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Ellsworth have opened their new restaurant and lodging house in the Wilkins block on Lower Main street. The "Cometa Lunch" and restaurant is invitingly neat and well equipped for regular meals or lunches and will be much appreciated by people in Morrisville and vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth have had charge of the dining hall at Samoset for the past two seasons and are experts in this line of business.

Woman suffrage was defeated in New Jersey Tuesday by about 50,000 majority.

Fall Weather Suggestions Glass, Putty, Doors, Windows Stove Pipe, Elbows

For Woman Suffrage

A recent issue of the Vermont Advance devotes considerable space to letters from men throughout the State that advocate suffrage for women. Among them is the following from our esteemed townsman, F. G. Fleetwood:—

"The times demand a large measure of loyalty, self-denial and a burning belief in the greatest good to the greatest number. These qualities are a part of woman's mental equipment. Give her the ballot and her private beliefs and ideals will find public expression and the life of the Republic will be purified and ennobled."

Excursion to Montreal

The Central Vermont Railway announces the last excursion of the season to be one to Montreal, which will be from points on the B. & L. and C. V., going Nov. 6, returning Nov. 9. This will be a rare opportunity to visit the Dominion and at this time of year it is full of interest. See advertisement on page 3 and plan to take advantage of the liberal rates.

Entertainment Course

The Entertainment Committee of the Woman's Club wishes to thank the public for its patronage for the advance sale of season tickets, and it announces that seats will be checked off at A. L. Cheney's drug store on Thursday, October 21, at 3 p. m. Tickets may be obtained of any member of the committee or at the drug store.

Gun Club

The Gun Club held a small shoot Saturday afternoon to try out the new automatic trap, which has recently been installed, and it worked to perfection. The cup committee is arranging for the second cup shoot, which will be held soon, and the date will be given as soon as possible. From Saturday's score, there is a chance for some of the members to make great progress before they get into the expert class. Among the interested spectators were the County Clerk and Hon. R. W. Hulburd. The Hon. Roger tried the game for a few minutes and killed one target dead. The following is the score:—

Targets	Broken	Total	Pt. Ct.
Gile,	75	20-24-22-06	88
Donovan,	75	16-17-19-02	69
Maurice,	75	10-16-12-38	51
Sargent,	59	13-13	26

Under the handicap system used for the cup shoots, both Gile and Donovan would have been credited with a perfect score, 100.

Harmony Pomona Grange

Harmony Pomona Grange, No. 9, met with Jeffersonville Grange on Wednesday, Oct. 13. The meeting was called to order by Worthy Master A. R. Straw of Stowe. The usual amount of business was transacted, the reports of different subordinate Granges being given, which showed that they were doing very good work.

After the noon recess the meeting was called at 1:30 and the following literary program given: Music by Choir; Recitation, Mrs. Stiles of Johnson; Solo, Ralph Brewster, Cambridge; The Pomona Grange, "Its Place and Importance in our Order"; Mrs. C. F. Smith; Music by Choir; Recitation, Mrs. Hopkins of Johnson; Song, Mrs. Wilson of Johnson. The questions were then taken: F. M. Small, "Tariff"; Errol Butler, "Trusts"; Levi S. Hall, "Poor Farming"; Song, Mr. Safford of Cambridge; E. S. Brigham, "Present System of Marketing." This was an excellent address, given by the Commissioner of Agriculture. Mr. Brewster sang the closing song, "This Is the End of a Perfect Day."

Sheriff Geo. E. Towne leaves tomorrow on a trip to California, in company with E. E. Harris. George leaves the welfare of the county in the care of his able deputies, who will be held accountable. All wish him a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Prior were in No. Montpelier the first of the week calling on relatives and friends.

HYDE PARK

More "showers" on the way?
Mrs. C. S. Leach was a visitor in Burlington last Friday.

Miss Alice Page leaves to-morrow for a few days' visit in New York City.

Mrs. C. E. Savery left yesterday for an extended visit with relatives in Connecticut.

Miss Marion Newcity now has a position as assistant in the County Clerk's office.

Frank Finnegan of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited his aunt, Mrs. Terrance Finnegan, last week.

The Hyde Park Town Clerk's office is now located in the Lamouille County Court House.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Godette were visitors in Burlington Sunday.

Several Masons from this place will attend the Masonic district meeting at Wolcott to-morrow.

Rev. Wm. Hazen, a former L. C. A. principal, now a missionary in India, called on friends here last week.

The rummage sale last week did a thriving business and as a result some $60 is added to the cemetery fund.

Important business meeting of the Ladies' Aid at the Cong'l church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Full attendance desired, as important business will come up.

The work of moving the buildings from the Library lot is now under way. The barn has been placed on the Denio lot and the house is meandering down towards the Bronx.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clement of Middlebury called on friends here last Monday. Thirty-five years ago "Will" was one of our enterprising business men. Wish we had more like him today.

Strong & Goddard have purchased of Harley Nichols his cottage in the Bronx and will make various improvements thereon, the main feature being the placing of an addition thereto.

Hyde Park can sympathize with Standen, P. Q., in its recent affliction by a disastrous fire. A $250,000 fire is a loss to any place, but all the same, good comes out of the ruins in better buildings and a better system of fire protection.

A few friends were entertained at dinner Monday evening at James T. Jewett's. The event was in honor of Mr. Jewett's 70th birthday. Numerous friends join with those who were there in heartiest congratulations to our worthy townsman.

There was a hearing last Thursday before the Selectmen regarding the petition for the abolition of that part of the "under-the-hill road" which is in this town, which extends from the forks of the road at the Finnegan farm to the John Ladeau place. M. P. Maurice appeared for those opposed to the movement and R. W. Hulburd for those in favor of it. Mr. Maurice argued that the road was a road laid out by the courts and therefore could not be abolished. Mr. Hulburd denied that and insisted that it was the duty of those opposed to throwing up the road to present undisputed proof that it was a court road and also that it was an unsafe road and should be abolished. At his suggestion the attorneys and the selectmen then went and looked over the road. The selectmen now have the petition under consideration. There were present at the hearing several Morrisville men who had come over prepared to argue in favor of the road, but the sudden leaving to inspect the road prevented this much to their disappointment.
